[From the Virginia City (Nev.,) Enterprise.) we protest. The telegraph informs is that the authorities of Nebraska have telegraphed to General Ord, and he has forwarded troops to quell an insurrection in the State Prison of that State. We protest against this arbitrary act of a despotic soldiery. It strikes at the free movements of convicts the world over; and that, too, when the Constitution of the United States nowhere authorizes a Federal officer to interfere in officer to in interfere in either a State of a State Prison's government. It is not giving the convicts a chance. We expect tomorrow to read that they have surrendered under protest and appealed to the people of the United States to sus-tain their acts. Here is another chance for the Democratic press. It is their friends who are being oppressed again.

He began to taste the smoke of the fire-crackers. He laidhis left car around against his ribs, and heard something. It was them crackers having fun. The mule picked out about three and a half miles of straight road and started. A negro met him about a mile the other side of the almshouse, going south, white with perspiration, with steams of smoke shooting out of his nostrils, mouth and ears, while his tail stuck straight up. Ike found his mule one morning, sticking half way through a farm-house near Paddy's Run, still smoking.
